

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1769.

VIENNA.

FEW Days ago a Woman was arrested here, charged with having killed above one Hundred Children. Her Employment was to nurse, at her own House, the Children of Women who were themselves Nurses in great Families, and also the Infants of such Mothers as did not chuse to own them. It was her Custom to get some Months Board paid her in Advance, and in a short Time after she came to tell the Mother of the Death of her Child. It is certain that during 17 Months, near 90 Children have been carried from her House to the Grave. Such a Number of successive Deaths must naturally render her, if not altogether culpable, at least very much suspected. It is said she hath already confessed her Crime, and discovered several Accomplices.

L O N D O N.

July 30. It is reported that the Earl of Chatham will be soon created Duke of Kent.

It is said that a great Personage, hearing that a certain chief Magistrate had taken Umbrage at a late Reception at St. James's, has given it in express Orders, that that Gentleman should be informed, that the seeming Coldness with which his Visit was attended, arose from the great Personage's not being previously acquainted with the Mode intended to be used; and not from any other Slight whatsoever.

July 22. Advice from Peterburgh say, that a powerful Russian Navy is now fitting out, to watch the Motions of a certain Northern Power, to be commanded by Vice Admiral Kennedy.

The last Letters from Paris mention, that large Bodies of French Troops had lately been ordered down to the Sea Coasts.

July 26. A Letter from Exeter gives an Account of the ill Treatment of the D. of B. there, and adds, that the Mob not only failed his Grace, but threw Dirt at him, as he was going into the Cathedral to be installed as Lord Lieutenant, and endeavoured to press him down; that his Grace was shoved down on his Hands, and the Chancellor quite down; and that his Grace had not been conveyed by a private Door to the Bishop's Palace, it is thought he would have been trampled to Death.

The above Letter says, "the Gentlemen of Devonshire have had a Meeting at Exeter, to consider of a Petition: Another Meeting is to be held the 5th of October. Devonshire will be followed by Somerset and Cornwall. Sir Richard Bamfylde, in the Riot last Tuesday, had the Misfortune to lose a Joint of one of his Fingers. I cannot conclude without mentioning a remarkable Declaration made to his Grace by a well dressed Man, who was coming from Guildhall: The red in your Grace's Face, is died with the Ruin of your Country."

July 27. By the latest Accounts arrived from the Philippine Islands it appears, that the Spaniards have actually Forty Ships of the Line there.

And by Letters received from the Havannah we hear, that the Spaniards have sixteen Ships of the Line there, besides Fourteen Thousand Land Forces.

We are told, that the Town of Genoa is to be made a free Imperial City, and that the other Territories, now belonging to the Genoese, are to be divided between the Infant Duke of Parma and his Sardinian Majesty.

It is now imagined from the Delay of the Russian and Turkish Armies in coming to action, that the present Campaign will not end the War, as was supposed some little Time ago, when a decisive Stroke was expected soon to happen; but the Difficulty of collecting an Army on the Side of the Porte, prevents their making any vigorous Effort, and the Want of Magazines, or Means of conveying Stores on the Side of the Czarina, prevents her advancing towards Constantinople.

It is likewise supposed to be now too late for the Swedes to make any Attempt on the Russian Territory. The Slowness of the Progress of the Turkish Army, and the Danish Fleet intimidating the Transportation of Troops across the Gulph of Bothnia, has checked that Design, in spite of all Endeavours of the French to incite the Execution of it.

The same Letters declare, that the Prince of Conde, with a grand Retinue, is also soon expected at the Emperor's Court, in order to conclude a Treaty of Marriage between the Archduchess Antonietta and the Dauphin of France.

A great Personage expressed himself the other Day to this Effect: "That every Thing relative to the Colonies would be settled to their Satisfaction."

It is positively said, that a great Personage, willing to take every Step for the Good of the People, is determined to lay the several Petitions that have been presented to him before a certain Honourable House, on their first Opening. This Step, it is added, he looks upon to be the most Constitutional, as well as the most Effectual in the present Situation of Affairs, to collect the candid Opinions of the People. So that from their Resolutions on this Subject, he will be able to determine whether their Grievances really exist or not. We can assure our Readers, upon the best Grounds, that all the Reports of the Earl of Cotham having declared, in a certain high Place, that he approves, and will support the Measures of the present Administration, are totally destitute of Truth, and propagated in order to mislead the Public; by an Artifice equally mean, and unavailing; nothing being more certain, than that the above noble Earl has the justest Sense of the fatal Mischief in which the Errors of Administration have involved both King and People; and that this noble Peer truly reverences and loves the whole Frame of our wise Constitution, whereof the transcendent and sacred Right to free and independent Elections, is the only sure Basis.

They write from Vienna, that the most outrageous Disorder reigns in the Turkish Dominions; from which the most melancholy Consequences are expected with Regard to Poland, and perhaps all Europe.

Aug. 1. A great Lady has for some Time been so very anxious to have a certain popular Prisoner pardoned, that a Message has been sent to him this Week, that his Pardon should shortly be granted; on which he observed, that unless it was free and unconditional, he would not accept it.

By the compendious View of the British Ships and Seamen employed in the Trade between Great-Britain and her Colonies on the Continent of America, of the Value of Goods exported from Great-Britain to these Colonies, and of their Produce exported to Great-Britain and elsewhere, the Account stands thus: Number of Ships employed 1078. Seamen 23910. Exports from Great-Britain 3370906. Exports from the Colonies 3924606.

By Letters from various Parts of the Country, we are informed, that there are the finest Crops of Corn on the Ground ever known.

It is reported that the Prime Minister at the Court of Lisbon, by the spirited Remonstrances from Home, has been obliged to drop his monopolising Scheme for raising the Price of Port Wines upon our Merchants and Factors; and many other commercial Advantages are soon expected to be obtained.

Some private Letters from Paris mention, that a Treaty of Marriage is on the Carpet, between the eldest Son of the late Pretender, and a Female Branch of the House of Bourbon.

Aug. 2. A Morning Paper says, that a certain great Person disapproves of all the ministerial Steps, relative to a certain Election taken during his Residence abroad, and has made some Advances to a great Patriot, which have been rejected with that noble Indignation peculiar to him.

Letters from Rome advise, that the Son of the late Chevalier de St. George has increased the Number of his Domestics, let up a splendid Equipage, and receives Visits from the first Nobility in that City.

Yesterday died at Peterburgh House, on Parsons Green, near Fulham, in the 82^d Year of his Age, the Right Hon. Daniel Finch, Earl of Winchelsea and Nottingham, Viscount Maidstone, an elder Brother of the Trinity House, Knight of the Garter, and one of the Lords of his Majesty's most Hon. Privy Council. He is succeeded in Title by a Son of Lady Charlotte Finch, now a Minor.

It has been remarked, that, in the last Parliament, the Prerogative Royal, was thought, by the Opposition, to be unconstitutionally extended in preventing the Subjects from being starved. In this, they Petition the King to exert it, to the Annihilation of the Constitution. These Contradictions were adopted with the same View: Creating a popular Discontent with their Sovereign. The former, which he had a Right to exert, was represented as a formidable Act of arbitrary Power, the latter, which he cannot grant, will be pronounced as a Refusal of the People's Rights, to redress Grievances. When we see the heavy Artillery drawn out to besiege a Fortress, it is a certain Sign that it is thought too strong and well Garrisoned. When I see a Minister most furiously attacked by those who are contending for his Place, I conclude, that he is a great Man, and formidable to his Enemies.

Aug. 5. An Evening Paper says, that the Public have already received some Benefit from the late Petitions; as a late Paper is said to have last Week paid into the Treasury a Sum no less than 100,000*l*.

It is reported, that the late great Failures in Exchange Alley, are for upwards of one Hundred Thousand Pounds; that some of the Gentlemen already publicly declared Defaulters, for very large Sums, hold Offices under the Government; and it is suspected many others of high Rank, were concerned with, and sheltered under the Cover of some of their Names. It is hoped and expected from the spirited Conduct of their Supporters, that they will be able to discover all the Parties engaged in this very wicked and extraordinary Proceeding. And as they have nobly rejected an Offer of about one Tenth Part for a Compromise, it is not doubted but they will, for the Public Good, make known, in a few Days, the Names of all others that shall not have fulfilled their Engagements.

An ancient Writer, soon after the Reformation in the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, when the Power and Tyranny of the Romish Clergy were abolished, has the following remarkable prophetic Passage: "The Churchmen were, the Lawyers are, and the Soldiers will be, Masters of the Lives and Fortunes of the good People of this Kingdom."

Aug. 8. A Letter from Paris mentions, that a Reduction of the religious Houses will soon take Place throughout that Kingdom, and Liberty of Conscience in Matters of Religion be allowed to a fuller extent than heretofore.

On Sunday died at his House in Park-Street, near Grosvenor-Square, the Hon. George Townshend, Esq; one of the Admirals in the white Squadron of his Majesty's Navy, and Uncle to George Viscount Townshend, now Lord Lieut. of Ireland.

It is said that a Military Company of Noblemen's Children will soon be established, of which the Prince of Wales will be appointed Colonel.

A political Writer asserts, that "The Disapprobation of the Earl of Chatham, if true, and the Coldness of the Earl of Bute, have not in the least staggered the Ministry; or added any real Force to opposition. The Two Noble Lords did not possess those conciliating Manners that are calculated to carry Influence into Retirement. Rising into Power in the Decline of Life, they left no Hopes of their Return into Office, after their unaccountable Resignations. The interested never worship any setting Sun; and that Pride, Haughtiness, and Reserve, which are the inseparable Companions of astonishing Talents, acquired no Friends to the Two Earls; whose Affection or Attention outlasted their actual Possession of Power. Upon a strict Review of the State of Parties in this Country, there is less Probability of a Change than in Times of much less Opposition. The Enemies of the present Ministry are not Friends among themselves. Though they all open Batteries against the Servants of the Crown, they keep up flank Fires upon one another. If Greaville likes Rockingham better than he does Grafton, it is only for his being less afraid of the Parts of the Former than of the Abilities of the latter. If Chatham is civil to Bute, it is that he wishes his Lordship should, by secret Intrigue, clear the Court of the present Ministry; and so, once more, open a Field for his own decrepid Ambition."

Advices from Holland mention the Arrival there, from Bengal, of sundry Armenian and other Asiatic Merchants, on their Way to London, with Complaints against the English Company's Governor, and the Gentlemen of the Council at their above-mentioned Settlements, for sundry grievous Oppressions, which Affairs has made a great Noise in Holland.

The several Sheets of the Surry Petition will speedily be brought to Town, and, when joined together, presented to his Majesty. It is believed more than 1500 Freeholders have already signed, though it has as yet never appeared in many Parts of the County. The Number that signed what is called the Surry Address, was exactly 335, Half of whom, it is said, were not Freeholders.

It is now currently reported, that the Marquis of Rockingham will speedily be appointed to a considerable Post in Administration.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, July 17.

"The King, desirous of putting his Marine on a better Footing than it hath hitherto been, hath taken into his Service a great Number of Shipwrights, who work without Intermision in the different Dock-Yards of the Kingdom, in the Construction of Ships, Frigates, &c.

Aug. 10. The Grenvillian Congress still continues to be frequently held, either at Stowe, or at other Houses of the Members of it; and there seems a great Unity of the Two Earls with each other, and of both with the Squire. This gives great Hopes and Expectations to their Friends, and to those who with a Change of Men and Measures.

Extract of a Letter from Bagdad, July 14.

"The French Ministry apply all their Care to augment Agriculture and Commerce in this Island. There are already arrived at Corte several Merchants and Traders, which has considerably raised the Rent of Shops and Warehouses. The Ministry also earnestly endeavour at the Advancement of Arts and Sciences, of which the Corsicans, by Means of the Troubles which have agitated their Country for more than 20 Years, have almost lost all the Traces."

TO THE PRINTER OF THE LONDON EVENING POST,

SIR, KINGSOATS, July 30.

LORD HOLLAND, seeing in your Paper a Letter from Mr Beckford to a Liveryman, of July 13, 1769, and Mr Woodhouse being at Spa in Germany, sends you an Authentic Copy of the Paper, which he sent by Mr Woodhouse to Mr Beckford: He hopes the Perusal of it will convince the Reader, that all is false that can impute any Crime to Lord Holland.

The Reader will see, that some of Lord Holland's Accounts were then before the Auditor; and there are Two Year's Accounts since lodged there.

He will see that Lord Holland's Accounts (voluntuous and difficult beyond Example) have not been kept back from Inclination; but Necessity; and not longer than those of his Predecessors.

He will see (and is desired to observe particularly) that Savings, so far from remaining all in Lord Holland's Hands, had been given in, and voted in Aid of the Public Service, to the amount of 320,541*l*. and 43,331*l*. 19*s*. 7*d*. (upon some Regimental and other Accounts being adjusted this last Winter) have been since paid and voted.

He will read in it, that Lord Holland desired to be shewn how he could proceed farther than he did. If nobody has shewn, or can shew, how that might have been, or may be done, does he deserve either Punishment or Censure? And had he not a Right to think himself sure; that Mr. Beckford must have been against the Article in the Petition relating to him? Because Mr. Beckford knew, and could have shown the Lord Mayor in Writing, the utter Falshood of what is there insinuated.

Lord Holland prints the Memorial examined by the Treasury, and the Sign Manual it obtained; stopping Process (not Accounts) for Six Months, which neither did, nor could suspend or delay the Paymaster's Accounts an Hour.

HOLLAND.

OBSERVATIONS on the Accounts of the PAYMASTER-GENERAL.

WHY were Lord Holland's Accounts, as Paymaster-General, for the Years 1757, 1758, and 1759, not delivered to the Auditors, before the Year 1768?

ANSWER.

THE Paymaster-General's Officers being best acquainted with Army Accounts, are employed in making up the Account of the preceding Paymasters. The Accounts of the Earls of Chatham, Darlington and Kinnoul, and Mr. Potter, were made up by them, and regularly, in due Course, delivered to the Auditors.

Great as the Army and its Expences were, during the last War, beyond all former Example, dispersed in all Quarters of the World; and difficult, as it evidently must have been, to keep the Accounts in any tolerable Order; it will be found upon Examination, that the Accounts of Lord Holland, as Paymaster-General, are not further back than those of his Predecessors, and that his Lordship's Accounts are not kept back, as has been suggested, from Inclination but Necessity.

The late Mr. Winnington's Accounts, for Two Years and a Half, from December 1743 to the 24th of June 1746, were declared the 15th of May 1760. The Earl of Chatham's Accounts, for Nine Years and an Half, from the 25th of June 1746, to the 24th of December 1755, are not yet declared. The Earls of Darlington and Kinnoul for the Year 1756, and the Earl of Kinnoul's and Mr. Potter's, for Six Months, to the 24th of June 1757, are now before the Auditors. The Accounts of Lord Holland, for the Years 1757, 1758, and 1759; likewise the Accounts of his Deputies, attending the Army in Germany, from the Commencement to the End of the late War, are also before the Auditors for their Examination; and his Lordship's Account for the Year 1760, is almost ready to be delivered to them.

From the Nature and Extention of Army Accounts, it is most evident, to those that are best acquainted with them, that it is tedious and difficult to bring even Regimental Accounts to a final Adjustment; other Parts of the Accounts are more so. Lord Holland, in the Course of the Years 1759, 1760, 1761, 1762, 1763, and 1764, has paid to Regiments and Independent Companies, 320,391 l. 9 s. 11 d. whole Accounts are, at this Time, unadjusted, for Want of proper Authorities; and 'til those Authorities are obtained, the Auditor will not allow one Shilling of said Sum, in his Lordship's Accounts; to obtain those Authorities, his Lordship has often repeated his Solicitations.

WHAT is the Balance of Cash in Lord Holland's Hands?

ANSWER.

THE Meaning of this Question can be no other than, what Savings are in Lord Holland's Hands? Or, in other Words, how much has the Expence, in any Case, fallen short of the Sum voted?

As to the Savings:—So far as the Pay Office has been enabled to state the Army Accounts, they have been given into Parliament.

From Services that have fallen short of the Sums voted, and from Monies paid in by Army Accountants, Lord Holland directed Accounts to be made up and laid before the House of Commons; and accordingly (out of these Savings in Lord Holland's Hands) Parliament from Time to Time availed itself of the following Sums, viz.

Voted in Aid of Extraordinaries, to	l.	s.	d.
December 24, 1763,	239,966	1	4.
Voted in the Year 1764, in Aid of German Claims,	170,906	2	8.
Voted in the Year 1765, in Aid of ditto Service,	251,740	2	7.
Voted in the Year 1766, in Aid of extraordinary Services,	60,638	2	10.
Voted in the Year 1767, in Aid of Extraordinaries, and other Services,	171,571	13	3.
Voted in the Year 1768, in Aid of the Supply,	15,719	15	7.
	920,541	18	3.

His Lordship could by no other Means ascertain and give into Parliament the Savings on the Votes for the Army, but by the final Adjustment of Army Accounts; what further Savings may be, is very uncertain, as they cannot be known before the Services are absolutely determined and closed.

His Lordship is very sorry to say it, that in the Years 1759, 1760, 1761, 1762, 1763, and 1764, there are not less than Fifty-six Regiments and Companies now standing open and unadjusted, for Want of Authorities; and in his Ledgers there are Accounts to a much greater Extent, as the Pay of Staff Officers, &c.

It may be seen here, that though Mr. Winnington died in April 1746, and his Executor, Mr. Ingram, used all possible Industry to close his Accounts, they could not be closed 'til 1763; Fourteen Years. The Earl of Chatham went out in December 1755, yet were not his Accounts closed 'til 1768; Thirteen Years. The Earl of Kinnoul's are not closed yet, though he has been out of the Office Eleven Years. Lord Holland has been out Three Years and a Half: Where is the Wonder his are not closed?

If those who complain, will show Lord Holland how he can proceed faster than he does, he will be very much obliged to them. Let it be observed, that he has before the Auditors already, Accounts for more than Mr. Winnington or Lord Kinnoul had to account for.

MEMORIAL for LORD HOLLAND to have longer Time to make up his Accounts as late PAYMASTER-GENERAL.

May it please your Lordships

I BEG Leave to inform your Lordships that a Process is in the Hands of the Sheriffs of Middlesex against me, to account to his Majesty for the Monies impressed to me as Paymaster-General of his Majesty's Forces.

I most humbly apprehend that the regular ordinary Course of accounting in the Exchequer was calculated (when established) for Transactions at home, which are easily and readily to be collected and made up at short Periods of Time.

The Accounts of the Army when employed abroad particularly, must unavoidably be much in arrear from the Nature of the Service. The Army Payments are necessarily in arrear; and Articles from Accidents inevitable, are obliged often to remain open a very long Time before they can finally be closed.

The Accounts of the last War are voluminous and difficult beyond Example. The great Variety of Operations, and the very great Distance of the Troops, made, and must make, the Correspondence and adjusting those Accounts with the Paymasters and Accountants attending them; very slow and tedious; these therefore will require longer Time to make up, both from their Bulk and Difficulty.

During the Course of a War, the Troops constantly changing and moving, and the Service in the utmost Hurry, it cannot then be done with the Order and Regularity absolutely necessary.

Since the War, the utmost Diligence has been used in them. The great intricate Article of foreign Expence (viz. the German) has been got together for the whole Time (which, after the former War, was several Years about) and one Year and an Half's general Account is now made out, and ready to be laid before the Auditors; the rest will regularly be laid before them as fast as it is possible to make them up. Though I have been Two Years out of Employment, the Payments for my Time are not as yet completed.

I therefore pray your Lordships will be pleased to obtain his Majesty's Warrant, granting me longer Time for making up my Accounts as Paymaster-General of his Majesty's Forces;

Which is, &c.

Pay-Office, Horse-Guards,
25th June, 1767.

HOLLAND.

King's Warrant. Stay of Process against Lord Holland for Six Months.

C O P Y.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS our right trusty and well-beloved Henry Lord Holland hath, by the annexed Memorial, represented, that from several unavoidable Causes and Difficulties he hath been prevented making up his Accounts as late Paymaster-General of our Forces; and we having taken the said Matter into our Royal Consideration, are graciously pleased to grant unto him a farther Time for making up his said Accounts. Our Will and Pleasure therefore is, and we do hereby direct, authorize, and require you to cause all Process against the said Henry Lord Holland, for his Accounts as late Paymaster-General of our Forces, to be stayed for and during the Term of Six Months, computed from the Day of the Date hereof; and for so doing this shall be your Warrant. Given at our Court at St. James's the Eighth Day of July, 1767, and in the Seventh Year of our Reign.

By his Majesty's Command,

GRAFTON,

C. TOWNSHEND,

THO. TOWNSHEND.

To our right trusty and well-beloved Samuel Lord Mansfield, our Remembrancer in our Court of Exchequer.

AN NAPOLIS, October 5.

Captain Kendal, of the Dispatch, who is arrived here, informs, that about a League from Cape Henry, he spoke the Brig Caroline, Edward York, Master, from Antigua to Philadelphia, who had met with very hard Weather, having shifted his Cargo, lost his Foremast and all his Sails; after being some Time in that Distress, Captain York fortunately spoke a Schooner and Sloop, who supplied him with a Main-sail and Square-sail.

Extract of a Letter from Messrs. MAUDUIT & WRIGHT, and Co. Merchants in LONDON, to their Correspondent here, dated July 24, 1765.

"Having had Information that some evil disposed Person has wrote into your Parts, that our House had been aiding in forwarding the Duties laid upon the AMERICANS; and also the Stamp-Duty; it becomes needful for us to vindicate ourselves, in a Thing that is absolutely the reverse, and we trust you will excuse the Liberty we now take, in requesting you will make known, that our House were the first People who began the Opposition to such Duties; that we signed the Petition against the Act, and one of the House was of the Committee appointed to attend the House of Commons, to prevent such Acts and Duties taking Place, and the first Person who proposed the Repeal when the Merchants met to consider of it.

"This Falshy, we apprehend, is propagated by some Person, who cannot rival us in Abilities in Trade, and as such we trust will have no Weight against Facts."

T O B E, S O L D,

FOUR Convict Servant Men, they are all Shoemakers, and good Workmen. For further Particulars enquire of

THOMAS HYDE.

Baltimore-Town, September 12, 1769.

THE Subscriber hereby gives public Notice that he has begun Inoculation, at his Dwelling-House, which stands distant from Baltimore-Town, Half a Mile, in a healthy Situation, and an agreeable Prospect. His Price as before, Two Pistoles for Inoculation, and Twenty Shillings per Week for Board. And as the Sickness is so trifling, and the Confinement none, the Expence need not exceed Five Pounds Fourteen Shillings, or Six Pounds Currency; and may be inoculated any Month in the Year, July and August excepted.

I shall be obliged to those who will favour me with their Custom; and they may depend on being carefully and tenderly dealt with, by

Their humble Servant,

HENRY STEVENSON.

N. B. Those who intend coming, are desired not to change their Manner of Diet, or use any Preparation before hand, as it is rather prejudicial than otherwise.

Annapolis, September 25, 1769.

To be sold by Public Vendue, at the Coffee-House in this City, on the 20th of October next, FOUR valuable NEGRO Men, fit for Plantation Business: Likewise Two valuable House-Wenchs, one of which is a good Spinner.

REBECCA YOUNG.

To be sold, at Public Vendue, on Thursday the 12th Day of October next, on the Premises, for Sterling Cash, Bills of Exchange, or Current Money,

PART of a Tract of Land, call'd HOWARD's and PORTER's-FANCY: And likewise Part of a Tract of Land, call'd HOWARD's and PORTER's-RANGE; both of which Parcels contain 350 Acres, whereon are Three Plantations, one of them well settled on every Account, and commodiously situated, adjoining the Severn Chapel. The Title is good. Whoever inclines to purchase, may be informed of every Thing in Regard to the Matter, by applying to me, at my Plantation on Elk-Ridge.

RICHARD YEATES.

* * The Reason of the above Lands being sold, is, that I have purchased Richard Cheney's Plantation, which adjoins my other Lands on Elk Ridge.

WHEREAS Dr. John Hamilton Smith, Administrator of Dr. John Hamilton, late of Calvert County, deceased, has authorized and empowered me the Subscriber to collect and settle the Debts due to the Estate of said Dr. John Hamilton; this is therefore to desire all those that are any Way indebted to the said Estate, to make Payment of their respective Balances before the 20th of October; those that do not comply with the above Request, may depend on having their Accounts put into the Sheriff's Hands against November Court, without Respect to Persons, as they cannot expect any further Indulgence to be given them, there being an absolute Necessity of having this Matter compromised immediately; and as it would be vastly disagreeable to me to act in the above Manner, I hope those Gentlemen and others that are indebted, will think of the long Indulgence that has been given them by the Deceased, and make it convenient to settle by the Time abovementioned, which will prevent further Cost to themselves, or Trouble to

(9w) ALEXANDER HAMILTON SMITH.

* * Attendance will be given at the different County Courts.

August 29, 1769.

RAN away from the Subscriber on the Ninth Instant, living at Allen's Fresh in Charles County, a Convict Servant Man, named CHARLES M'DONALD, a Plasterer by Trade, about 30 Years of Age, 5 Feet 7 or 8 Inches high, slim made, swarthy Complexion, and blind in the left Eye, he is talkative, but smooth spoken, he has several painted Marks on his Arms and above his Knees: Those on his right Arm have the Representation of a Crucifix, with a Crown at the Top, and within the Crown are the Letters I. N. R. I on the Outside of the Arm are a Heart and Four Darts; below them, are the Letters, S. P.

On the Inside of his left Arm, are the Letters, S. L. E. E, and below those, Two Hearts; above his right Knee, are the Letters M. D. above the left Knee a Heart, and below it, the Figure of Six. Had on, when he went away, an Osnabrig Shirt, Petticoat Trousers, a Pair of Shoes and Stockings, blue striped Country Cloth Jacket, and a round Dutch Cap. Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and delivers him to the Subscriber, shall have Forty Shillings Reward if taken in the County, if out of the County Eight Dollars and reasonable Charges. I have lately heard he told a Companion of his, he intended to go off with George Liddell a Showman, I suppose he did so, as Liddell went out of the Creek in his Boat the same Day the Runaway absconded: I therefore promise to give any Person that will convict the said Liddell of carrying off the said Servant, Five Pounds besides the above Reward.

(4w) JAMES CAMPBELL.

N. B. He has been on board a Man of War, and may pass for a Sailor.

Annapolis, September 25, 1769.

To be sold by the Subscriber, at PUBLIC SALE, to the highest Bidder, on the 13th Day of November next,

ABOUT 800 Acres of valuable Land lying in Frederick County, being Part of a Tract of Land, call'd The Addition to Piles's Delight, adjoining to Mr.
Joseph Chapline's Plantation, and willed by Col.
Roderick Sprigg, deceased, to be sold by his Executrix, before a certain Day mentioned in the said Will, wherein since the said Will, and as that Authority was personal to the Executrix, not delegatory, or transmittable to any other Person, the Lands descended to the Heir at Law of the Testator, in whom rests the legal Title, and all other Sales, or Deeds, for the same, than made by him, are invalid, and of none Effect in Law, of which the Public are hereby warned, to prevent Frauds, Trespasses, &c.

The Sale will be made on the Premises when the Opinion of the ablest Lawyers on the Continent, relative to the Right of Title, will be shewn to any Person inclined to bid for the same.

RICHARD SPRIGG, Heir at Law.

THE FULLING-MILL at the Mouth of Patuxent River, is now provided with a good Fuller, and ready for Work, such as fulling, drying and pressing all Sorts of Clothes and Worked Stuffs, Scarlet and blue excepted, unless dyed before sent to the Mill.
As the insupportable Inconvenience attending the Collection of a Number of small Debts, from various distant Parts of the Country, must be obvious to every one, and as this expensive Undertaking was begun and prosecuted, principally to encourage the Manufacture of Woollen Country-Cloth, at a Time when the oppressive Measures, lately adopted and pursued by the Mother-Country, render it indispensably necessary, for our own Well-being, that every Individual should manufacture as much as in his Power lies.
It is hoped that no Offence will be given, if the Proprietors desire the Money for fulling, &c. to be sent by the Person who is to receive the Cloth, as it is absolutely necessary to support the Work. All Persons who will favour me with their Cloth, may depend on having it finished off in the best Manner, and with all possible Dispatch; and to prevent Mistakes the Owner of every Piece of Cloth, is requested to put the initial Letters of his or her Name in the Web.

(tf) WILLIAM SCOTT.

RAN away from the Subscriber, a Convict Servant
Man named ANTHONY CAYTON, or KUR-
TON, a Tailor by Trade, about 6 Feet high, pretty freckled, short Hair of a deep red or Carrot colour, drawling Voice, a very remarkable wide Mouth, thick red Lips, and has had a small Cut over his Left Eye, and it is bruised and black under it. His Apparel when he went away, was a light colour'd Cloth Coat and Breeches, red Jacket, good Shoes and Stockings, and Hat.

N. B. 'Tis supposed he has other Cloaths with him, and therefore may change his Apparel; likewise supposed there went away with him, a Convict Servant
Woman, named Margaret Plannakin, belonging to Mr.
George Smoot of Charles County.
